Anya took care of Max, feeding him and playing with him every day. Max became very happy and loved Anya very much. They played together in the fields, ran around the trees, and even went on adventures to explore the village. Everyone in the village loved Max too, and he became a part of Anya's family.

One day, while playing in the garden, Max chased a butterfly and ran away. Anya searched everywhere for him, calling his name, "Max! Max!"
